Deportation Victim Heads Back to U. S.

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Wearing a borrowed overcoat, William Heikkila left Helsinki airport today on his return journey to the United States. A bunch of flowers and a box of chocolates was his only luggage.

The 32-year-old Finnish-born San Francisco draftsman, was rushed out of the United States last week without luggage or a farewell call to his wife. U. S. Immigration Commissioner Joseph M. Swing ordered his return at U. S. expense after a federal judge scheduled a hearing to determine whether he had been deported illegally.

Heikkila, before emplaning, gave away the money that sympathizers in Finland had given him. He handed it over to a friend to buy toys for his children. He wore an overcoat given to him by the American ambassador. He had arrived in a light summer suit.

Heikkila was born in Finland while his parents, who were naturalized Americans, were on a business trip. He was brought to the United States when 2½ months old but was never naturalized.

LENDINARA, Italy (AP) — Mimi Rossetto, regent Gypsy queen of central Europe and the Near East, died today in her tent, surrounded by the elders of her tribe.

Three days ago the 56-year-old Mimi stopped responding to antibiotic treatment for a kidney ailment.

She queened the Gypsies of Hungarian origin. They are members of 15 tribes, but a census of her subjects would be impossible since many of them are behind the Iron Curtain.

Her kingdom spread over most of central Europe and the Near East and she was considered the most famous of Gypsy rulers.

PARIS (AP) — Gen. Maurice Gamelin, Allied commander in chief in the early days of World War II, was buried today after a private funeral. Gamelin died last Friday at the age of 85 after a long illness.

TUNIS (AP) — Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba "retreated" today on his latest ultimatum to the French. He said he would not take his quarrel with France back to the U. N. Security Council.

Bourguiba in his weekly broadcast to his people last Thursday had given the French a week to form a new government which would accept the compromise proposed by the U.S.-British good offices mission and accepted by Tunisia. He said otherwise he would go back to the Council.

"Contrary to what I said last week, we will not return to the U. N. on our complaint concerning our differences with France."

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — An Iranian air force plane carrying three American officers and one Iranian was reported missing today on a mapping mission. Twenty planes began a widespread search of a vast desert area. The U. S. embassy declined to release the names of the Americans.

PARIS (AP) — The French Foreign Ministry said today Egyptian reports of an agreement between Egypt and the old Suez Canal Co. "A new meeting between Egypt, World Bank representatives and the Suez Canal Co. has been proposed to the Egyptian government, which has not yet answered," a ministry spokesman told reporters.

Despite the denials, Egyptian officials stood by their report of Wednesday that the company's owners and Egypt had agreed on a formula for settlement.

Settlement of the dispute would help toward restoring normal relations between Egypt and the West. They broke down after Egypt's President Nasser nationalized the canal in 1956.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — A gas and oil fed fire raged out of control today in the Esso Standard Oil Co. 25-million-gallon capacity storage plant on this port city's waterfront.

No injuries were reported. Eleven of the plant's 22 storage tanks appeared doubtful whether the others of the Hampton Roads facility could be saved.

An explosion in the control shed of the $1½ million plant shortly before 11 p. m. Wednesday touched off the fire as the tanker Esso Newark unloaded at the plant's pier. Estimates placed the value of the stored petroleum at several million dollars.

Stunting Jet Probe Slated by Air Force

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Air Force has ordered a formal investigation of reports of jets stunting dangerously close to commercial airliners.

Aerobatics on a civil airway, if verified, would mean a court-martial that could lead to the stunting pilot's dismissal from the Air Force, a spokesman said.

Lashes at Critics

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, his temper flaring repeatedly, hit back at critics of his Pentagon proposals at a news conference Wednesday in which he also (1) rebuked a woman reporter for her statement about a possible "personalized military force" coming out of such proposals, (2) branded Democratic unemployment pay plan a "dole" and (3) refused comment with an explosive "No!" on Sen. Mike Mansfield's assertion that a "tenuous truce" exists in Korea.

Wild Storms Lash Parts Of Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Violent storms lashed central and southern sections of the Midwest Thursday, dominating the wet weather belt from the Rockies to the Appalachians.

Tornado winds whipped across the middle Mississippi Valley during the night and early morning, hammering hardest in parts of Missouri and central and southern Illinois.

Tornado funnels were reported over wide areas of the two states but none reportedly touched the ground. Thunderstorms, with strong winds and hail in some areas, hit many sections. No injuries were reported.

Light snow continued in the Rockies and rescue crews were hampered in digging through huge snowdrifts to reach an undetermined number of marooned campers in the snowbound Montana mountain town of Red Lodge.

A record 42-inch snowfall hit the 5,600-foot high town of 3,000. Drifts were as high as 10 feet.

Lana Hoping For Custody Of Daughter

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Movie star Lana Turner says she is just a mother hoping for custody of her child.

The future of the actress' 14-year-old daughter Cheryl rests with a silver-haired judge presiding at a juvenile court hearing.

Cheryl has been held since her mother's lover Johnny Stompanato was fatally stabbed April 4 in the boudoir of the actress' rented mansion. Police said Cheryl admitted plunging a kitchen knife into Stompanato's stomach when he threatened her mother.

A coroner's jury decided the slaying was justifiable homicide. However, this ruling is not binding on Superior Judge Allen T. Lynch, who sits each Thursday in Juvenile Court.

Among the 18 witnesses summoned were Cheryl, Lana and Steve Crane, second of Miss Turner's four husbands and Cheryl's father.

Cheryl could be sent home with her mother. Or Judge Lynch could place her in custody of her father or her maternal grandmother Mrs. Mildred Turner, or place her in a foster home or a state institution. The judge could also order the girl tried as an adult for murder or manslaughter, but this is highly unlikely.

Gasoline Pipeline Sprays Home Site

TOLEDO (AP) — The Paul A. Ball family in nearby Oregon was forced to evacuate its home Wednesday following a break in an eight-inch pipeline carrying high octane gasoline.

The break sprayed the ball home with gasoline and poured hundreds of gallons of the flammable liquid into a nearby field.

Residents in the area were warned to extinguish stoves and furnaces and more than two square miles were blocked off to traffic for several hours while firemen flushed storm sewers.

At his news conference Wednesday, Eisenhower denied angrily that his reorganization proposal could make possible control of the military forces by any one man.

New Labor Bill Showdown Near

Knowland Bucking Liberal Coalition

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) bucked a coalition of Democrats and Republicans today in an effort to force showdown votes in the Senate this week on broad proposals to regulate labor unions.

Knowland, Senate Republican leader, said he will give his colleagues a chance to "show whether they want to do something about the abuses within the labor unions with which the country now is familiar."

Knowland's proposals, including requirements for secret ballots, are designed to give union members more control within their unions. They are generally opposed by labor leaders.

His announced plan to offer them as amendments to a less controversial bill for regulation of employee welfare and pension funds caused a delay in consideration of that measure. But the Senate decided to go into early-and-late sessions to resolve the issue.

KNOWLAND FACED consolidated opposition from the Democratic leadership and Republicans who class themselves as liberals.

Sen. Ives (R-N.Y.), one of the latter and a member of the Senate Labor Committee which approved the pending bill, said he believes at least a dozen Republican votes will be cast against Knowland's proposals.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, who has urged the Senate not to attach "crippling" amendments to the pending measure, obviously believed he could supply sufficient Democratic votes to the coalition to stop Knowland's drive.

Solons Still Frown On Ike Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key House members expressed doubt today despite President Eisenhower's new assertion that his military reorganization plan would not permit overconcentration of military power.

Rep. Hardy (D-Va.) said he was scared "plumb to death" by the administration proposal.

Eisenhower wants among other things to increase the powers of the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and to expand the Joint Staff, a group working under the military chiefs.

At his news conference Wednesday, Eisenhower denied angrily that his reorganization proposal could make possible control of the military forces by any one man.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, Britain and France called on Russia today to begin group diplomatic talks immediately on an agenda for a summit conference and on plans for a foreign ministers meeting.

Identical notes presented by the three Western powers to the Soviet government in Moscow were frankly designed to probe Russia's intentions toward a heads-of-government session. Officials here have found increasing evidence in recent Soviet moves that Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be backing away from a summit session because he cannot dictate its terms.

The latest Soviet maneuver was disclosed as Moscow made public a Khrushchev letter to President Eisenhower on cessation of nuclear weapons tests.

Khrushchev rejected an Eisenhower proposal to resume disarmament negotiations with technical studies of arms control measures.

The turnaround, in a Khrushchev letter to Eisenhower made public Wednesday night, is the latest in a series of Soviet moves which have raised grave doubts here as to whether Moscow is presently prepared to enter any serious negotiations with the West on terms it does not dictate.

To explore Soviet intentions further on this point, the United States, Britain and France have decided to urge the U.S.S.R. to agree promptly to joint diplomatic talks in Moscow on summit conference arrangements and issues.

The Khrushchev letter got prompt attention from Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles, who met at the White House late Wednesday. Press secretary

Cattle Supply Buildup Eyed

Ag Agency Warns Against Expansion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agricultural Marketing Service said today the cattle industry, now riding a wave of favorable prices, may be expanding too rapidly for its long-time good.

The service said cattlemen are withholding a considerable number of meat animals for use in building bigger herds. This holding operation tends to reduce meat supplies below what they should more normally be, with prices being held relatively high.

"The withholding occurs after two years of reduction in numbers of cattle and production of hogs," the agency said in a livestock situation report.

"With slaughter supplies tending downward, and consumer demand for meat weakening only a little, the immediate result of withholding is to create a price boom. The boom feeds on itself; each rise in price stimulates further holding back, to speed the expansion. This spiral, so dangerous to future prices, may not build as high as some have previously."

THE SERVICE said the consequence of too rapid an increase in cattle numbers will not appear for two years or longer; until then, prices will hold up well.

As for expansion in hog production, the agency said significant price effects of any overproduction probably would not occur before the fall of 1959.

Supplies of meat for consumption this year may drop, the service said, to a per capita average of 151 pounds compared with 159 last year. It said prices of meat at retail may recede only moderately from spring levels.

Steel Sale Tie-In Claim Is Disputed

NEW YORK (AP) — Two defense witnesses challenged previous testimony that Bethlehem Steel Corp. uses tie-in sales to squeeze out small steel companies.

Testifying Wednesday in a government antitrust suit seeking to bar a proposed merger of Bethlehem and Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. were Luther B. Beck, president of the Alpha Tank Co. Inc., of New York City, and Roger A. Yoder, a vice president of the Detroit Steel Co.

The trial resumes today. Beck said his firm had bought steel from Bethlehem for years, but hadn't made a purchase of wire rope since 1950. He was asked:

"Did the Bethlehem company or any one connected with them ever tell you that in order to buy tank steel you had to buy wire rope?"

"No," replied Beck. Last week Frederick B. Paulsen, of the Paulsen-Webber Cordage Corp., a wire rope concern, testified his salesmen had steadily lost business because of Bethlehem tie-ins on wire rope.

Asked if he ever told Paulsen that he was "forced to buy wire rope from Bethlehem" in order to get steel from them, Beck said:

"I could never have told him that." Yoder also contradicted previous testimony that Bethlehem had refused to sell wire rope to him without accompanying orders for steel sheets.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The five members of the 101st Airborne Division who met their death at wind-swept Ft. Campbell, Ky., may have spent their last days at the Clinton County Air Force Base here.

Capt. Paul Pinkerton, base information officer, said that about 600 army and 200 air force personnel who took part in the ill-starred Exercise Eagle Wing were bivouacked at CACFB from Saturday through Tuesday, prior to the mass drop.

Capt. Pinkerton added, however, that he did not have a list of the victims themselves had stayed at Wilmington or one of the other bases in this area.

More than 1,300 men of the famed 101st — the "Screaming Eagles" paratrooper division — took part in the jump. They were members of the 502nd Airborne Battle Group. Air Force personnel who stayed at Wilmington were members of the 839th Air Division.

Paratroops Plan Another Big Drop Despite Tragedy

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP) — Military authorities announced plans today for another mass air drop Saturday three times as big as the one Wednesday in which 5 paratroopers jumped to their deaths and 137 were hospitalized.

Saturday's drop will involve more than 4,000 men from the famed 101st Airborne Division, comrades of the men who jumped to their deaths across wind-swept drop zones.

MAJ. L. A. BEAULT, public information officer, said the remainder of Exercise Eagle Wing will continue as scheduled. The exercise, a two-week maneuver, is designed to prepare the men for instant battle.

Maj. Beault said Saturday's jump will be spread over eight drop zones on this 88,000-acre reservation astride the Kentucky-Tennessee line. The jump starts at 6 a. m. Men of the 502nd Battle Group, involved in Monday's drop, will not participate.

Treacherous and gusty winds, ranging on the ground up to eight knots at jump time, turned

General War Views Aired

Army, Air Force, Navy Aides Outline Threat

NEW YORK (AP) — Gen. Curtis E. LeMay said today the threat of general war increases each day as Russia grows stronger.

But Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor said general war is less likely than limited wars because of the nuclear strength of both sides.

Taylor, Army chief of staff, and LeMay, Air Force vice chief of staff, prepared their remarks for the convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. Adm. Harry D. Felt, vice chief of naval operations, also joined in the military discussions.

LeMay and Taylor differed on "mutual deterrence" — the idea that with each side able to destroy the other with nuclear weapons, neither will start a war.

"The Air Force believes in deterrence," LeMay said. "We do not, however, believe in the false security that derives from believing the myth of mutual deterrence."

Taylor expressed the view that "under such conditions, we are probably justified in assuming that neither side would voluntarily start a general atomic war," but he added: "It does not follow that the Soviet bloc will renounce other forms of aggression as a means of gaining their ends."

Felt spoke out strongly for the Navy's fleet ballistic missile system, in which intermediate range Polaris ballistic missiles are to be fired from submerged nuclear submarines off the coast of an enemy.

All three officers agreed on the possibility of limited war, including the possibility that limited war could grow into general war.

Wednesday's exercise into unexpected tragedy.

The dead included Pfc. Danny J. Ruffin Jr., son of Danny Ruffin of Hamilton, Ohio.

At least seven other Ohioans were among the injured. They included Pfc. James Scalia and Sp3c James B. Mills, both of Cleveland; Pfc. Thomas J. May, Ironton; Pfc. Tim Gee, Medina; Sp3c Leonard O. Sanford, St. Marys; M. Sgt. Alfred J. Grant, Montpelier; and Sgt. 1c William J. Ashcraft, Painesville.

The paratroopers were tossed about the drop zone by treacherous and shifting wind gusts.

The victims, among nearly 1,400 taking part, were dragged across the rough drop zone by billowing parachutes which they were helpless to deflate. None of those hospitalized was believed in serious condition.

"THE GUY who collapsed my chute for me looked like Santa Claus at Easter time," said Sgt. 1c Daniel Kling, St. Louis, who suffered severe cuts and bruises. "Guess I went clear across the drop zone."

The battle-trained soldiers making the jump were members of the 502nd Battle Group, one of five such groups in the streamlined 101st Airborne Division. The 502nd is the aggressor force in Exercise Eagle Wing.

The other groups, acting as defenders, are scheduled to jump Saturday.

The five who were killed were blown against trees and rocks by the wind gusts or strangled by suspension lines when they were unable to collapse their parachutes.

Maj. Gen. W. C. Westmoreland, 44, who assumed command of the 101st earlier this month, jumped with the 502nd, his 70th jump.

Maj. L. A. Beault, information officer at the Army post, said there was no malfunctioning of parachutes.

Authorities said many of the injured were hurt when gusty winds carried the falling troopers from their intended landing spots and then dragged them and their parachutes along the rough terrain.

"It was like a runaway mule pulling a farmer who had been plowing," one observer said.

Westmoreland was dragged 300 feet across rough ground, but escaped injury.

"I just couldn't run as fast as my chute was going," he said.

Rusty Weapons

DEPUTY PREMIER Aleksandar Rankovic (above) delivered a bitter anti-Russian speech at Yugoslavia's Communist Party Congress -- a speech charging that the Soviet leaders were "sharpening the old rusty weapons" Stalin used in 1948 to rout Marshal Tito from the Cominform. Nine Soviet and satellite envoys walked out of the meeting in protest.

'Clean-Up' Inspection Set Tonight

The Junior Chamber of Commerce didn't get to make their Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix - up "inspection" Wednesday night — but they'll be going ahead with it Thursday evening, instead.

John G. Todd, Fayette County sanitarian, wasn't available to accompany a Jaycee committee Wednesday night, and the event had to be postponed until his return.

The inspectors and Todd will tour Washington C. H., looking for dirty yards, trash and improper garbage containers. Notices, signed by Todd, will be posted wherever they are found.

The inspection is the first major event on the Jaycee's Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up calendar. Others include street - sweeping in downtown Washington C. H. (by "uniformed" Jaycee streetcleaners), repair of the west retaining wall at the Courthouse, and landscaping of their own Jaycee Club House on the CCC highway west.

Jack Lyons is chairman of the clean-up campaign.

Transferred School Ruling Is Outlined

COLUMBUS (AP) — A transferred portion of a school district is under no obligation to pay off its share of the district's debt on the spot, Atty. Gen. William Saxbe ruled today.

The transferred portion of the district may pay off its equitable share of the district's bonded debt on regular terms, Saxbe held.

The question arose in connection with a transfer of a part of the Jackson Twp. School District in Wood County to the Deshler Local District in Henry County. Saxbe's opinion means that $18,000 in obligations on the transferred area may be paid when bonds become due and not on July 1 when the transfer is legally final.

2 Men Questioned In Marion Holdup

COLUMBUS (AP) — Daniel E. Wells, 22, of Carroll, and Richard L. Moss, 24, of Columbus, were arrested Wednesday night for questioning in the $4,000 robbery of a Marion County gunsmith.

The men, detectives said, denied the robbery and carried none of the loot. They were arrested about two hours after two men robbed Milo Hills, a gun expert, at his farm home in northeastern Marion County near Kirkpatrick.

Hills told police that the robbers, besides taking the money, took several pistols from gun displays.

Chilean Envoy's Auto Hurts Cop on Scooter

NEW YORK (AP) — An auto driven by the Chilean ambassador to the United Nations struck and slightly injured a policeman riding a motor scooter to work Wednesday night.

Ambassador Alfonso Grez, who did not stop after the accident on the Triborough Bridge, later was quoted by police as telling them he had not been aware of striking any vehicle.

Top Secret Nose Cone Is Feared Lost

Test Rated Success Although Tracking Gear Proves Faulty

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force hurled a two-stage missile some 5,000 miles out across the southeast Atlantic Wednesday night, but today there were doubts that its top secret nose — needed for study — would be recovered.

Because some of the telemetry equipment aboard the Thor - Vanguard combination failed to function, the missile's course could not be followed as accurately as had been planned.

"We have not recovered the nose cone and I doubt we will," Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, commander of the Air Force ballistic missile division, told the House Space Committee in Washington.

However, the Air Force confirmed that the nose cone had attained intercontinental range — possibly 5,500 miles.

This meant it was the longest flight any American ballistic missile has yet attained. It required only about 30 minutes to travel to the Ascension Island area off the African coast.

The Soviet Union has made claims of intercontinental ballistic missile flights at full range. The only U. S. missile that previously has flown full intercontinental range is the jet-powered Snark which requires about eight or nine hours for the flight.

WEDNESDAY'S mission was to launch the highly advanced and elaborately equipped cone 80 miles up in space and then 5,500 miles southeastward to a previously selected impact area near Ascension.

The launching was sensationally successful, and the flight appeared to be perfect.

Some of the radio reporting equipment in the second stage failed. One Air Force expert said that without all the telemetry equipment "I wouldn't give two bits right now for our chances of finding the nose cone. There's an awful lot of water in the South Atlantic. But the outlook may brighten tomorrow."

The rocket, a Thor 1,500-mile missile into the nose of which the second stage of a Vanguard satellite rocket had been set like a candle, took off at 7:10 p. m.

The Air Force said the exhausted first stage burned out and fell away exactly according to program.

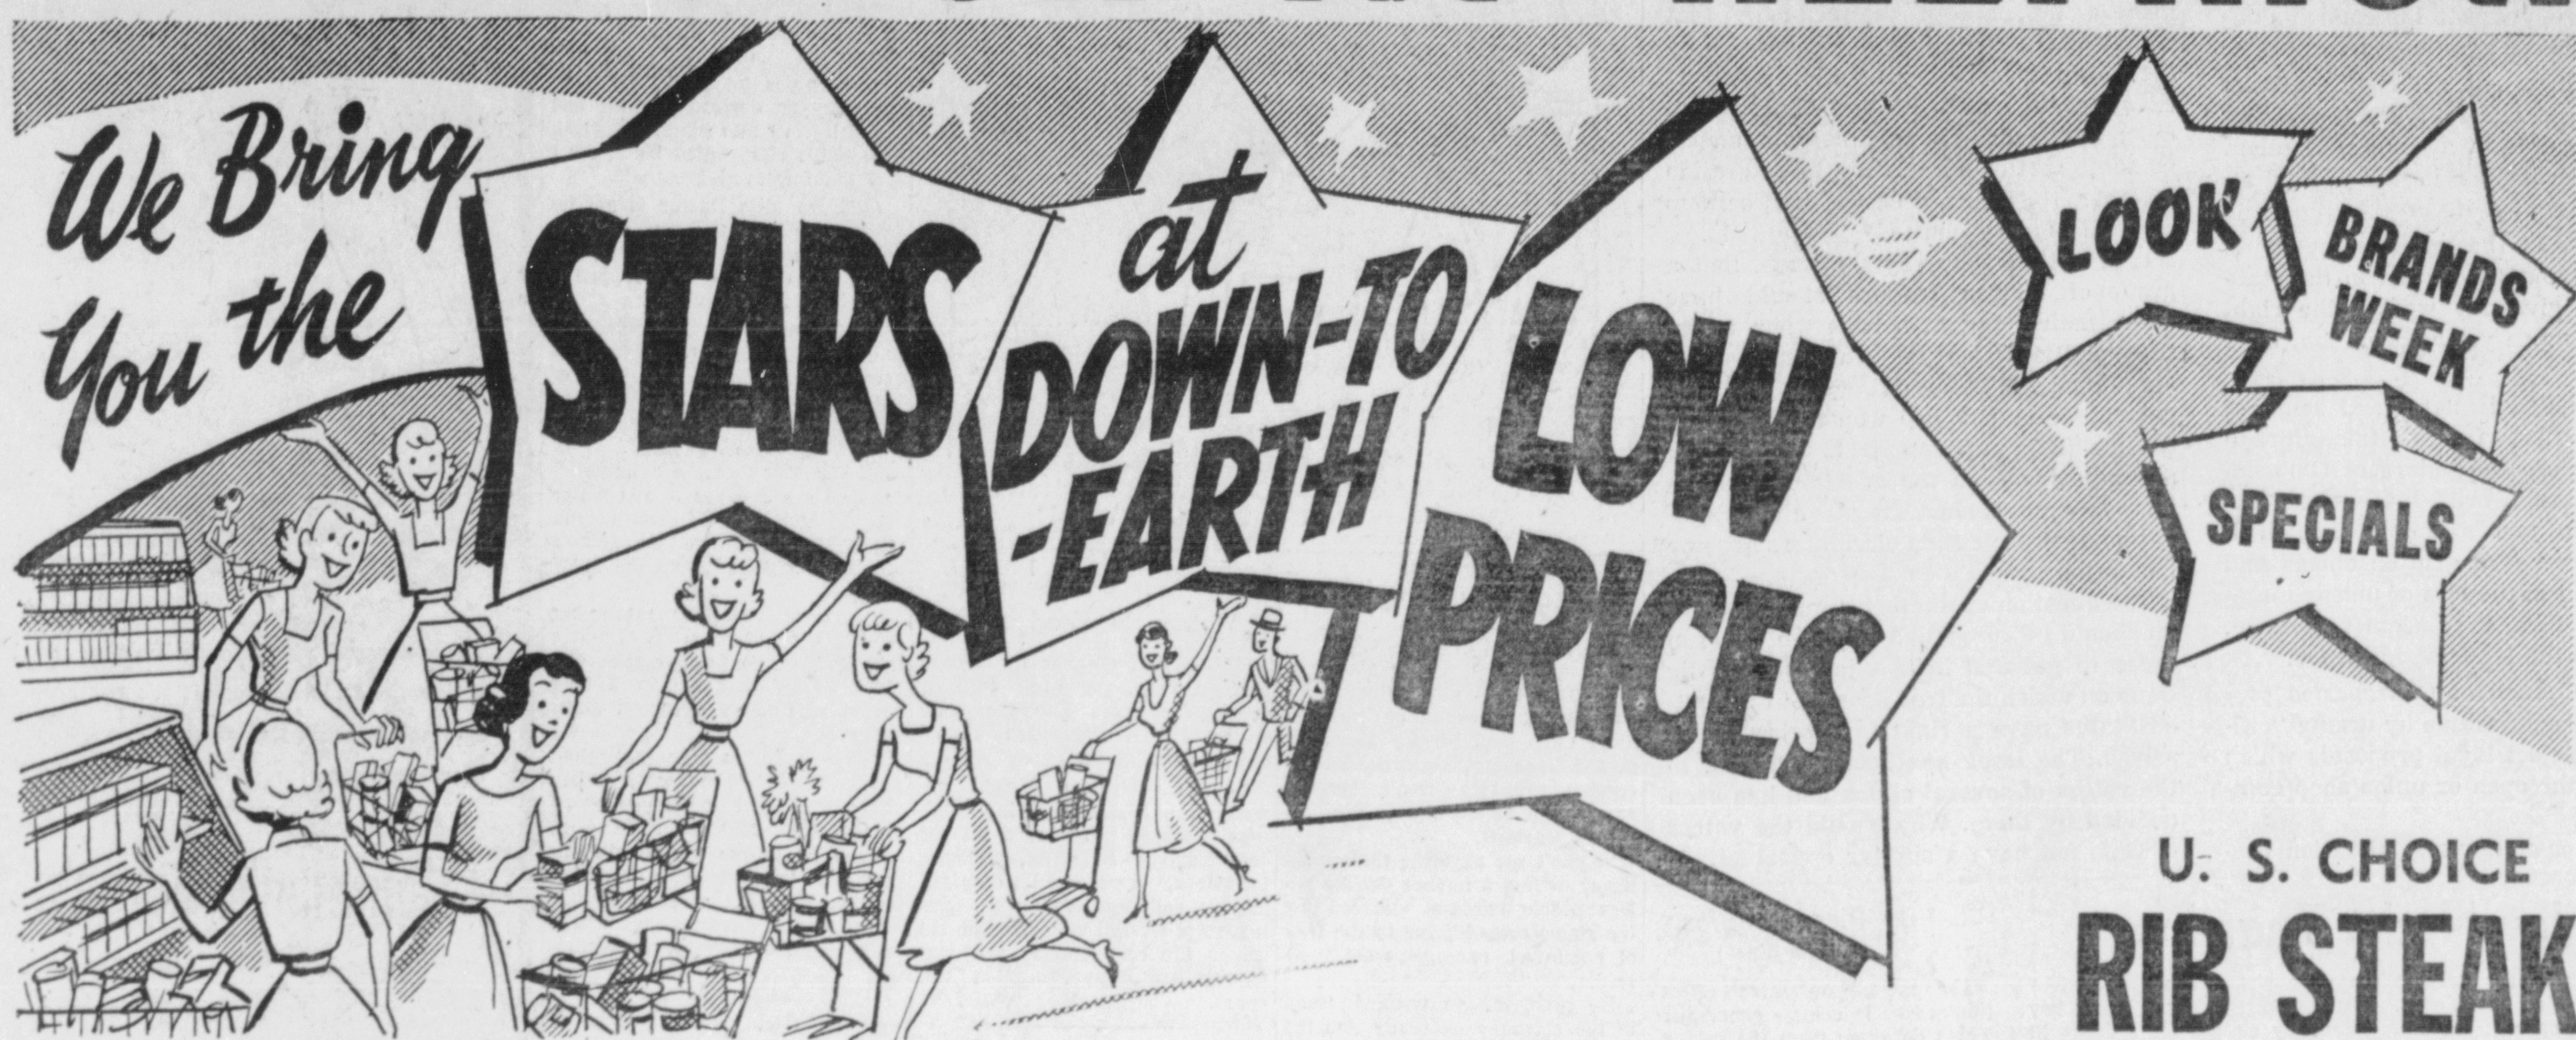

The second stage ignited immediately and bore the missile

Council of Churches' Action Questioned

There has been an unusual amount of comment in many places over the action by the Ohio Council of Churches against the proposed "right-to-work" amendment to the constitution of Ohio. Many church members are opposed to the council's action, as it is being generally interpreted.

This amendment, if sufficient petitions are filed, would come before the voting public in this state at a general election. Eighteen other states in the nation already have adopted it.

The purpose of the amendment would be to bring about legislation in the state which would give any worker the right to not join a union yet hold his job, if he so chose.

Naturally union leaders, and some of their members, are fighting this effort to bring this before the voters of Ohio because a "right-to-work" law without being forced to join a union, they feel, would ruin their iron grip on unions and possibly result in the loss of union members. This in turn, they seem to believe, would lessen the leaders' influence.

The Ohio Council of Churches is proclaiming a broad attitude by urging "citizens" to reject legal proposals which make either the open or union shop compulsory.

The only non-compulsive situation possible in labor-management relations is freedom of choice on the part of the worker as to whether he wishes to join a specified union or not.

Most churches, even as to their own membership, accept the principle that men and women become members by their own choice, conscientiously arrived at through deep convictions. In fact, most applicants for membership undergo some sort of questioning to determine whether they are seeking membership through sincere choice.

It is untimely, to say the least, that a group of church leaders should have taken their stand at a time when initiative petitions for the constitutional amendment are being circulated. By their premature action they would seem to be lending their support to efforts to stifle a popular vote on the question, such efforts having reached the stage of intimidation against petition circulators in some instances.

The question of whether a man or woman should be compelled to join a union in order to get and hold a job is a public issue on which the free people of the United States have a right to express themselves. The issue has been submitted to the voters of several states and has been decided by them. Why should the voters of Ohio not have a similar opportunity?

Folies Now Nuder Than Ever

PARIS (AP)—The Folies Bergere is back and nuder than ever, right from the opening curtain.

French law requires at least a G-string, and the famed show complies. But the G-strings are so small the girls can take them home in a compact.

The Folies Bergere closed its doors some four months ago when 67 stagehands demanded more money. Manager Paul Derval, who spends half a million dollars on each show, said he had no more money for the stagehands.

The stagehands quickly compromised to the relief of thousands of people around the world whose memory of "Gay Paree" most likely includes visions of leggy nudes from the lavish show.

This year's is about the most risqué show ever produced at the Folies. It gets started with a nude girl dancing by a river bank. Along comes a young boy similarly clothed for a dimly lit dance.

Suddenly the lights come up, the nudes are gone and the stage is populated with richly costumed girls.

Despite all the girls and their costumes or lack of same, there is not much in the show to shock your maiden aunt, unless she is just opposed to nudity.

Each tableaux is a deluge of color, ostrich feathers, and brocade. More than 1,000 pounds of feathers were used in this year's costumes and several hundred miles of material are draped over the 100 girls who troop about the stage.

Striking effects are made by experienced stagehands and electricians who probably know more about lighting and female body than did Renoir.

The most impressive effect this season is a huge chandelier which descends from the ceiling bearing eight long-limbed girls wreathed in smiles but nothing more.

What the Folies seems to lack is a real star like the famed Mistinguett. For several years Derval has been pushing red-haired Yvonne Menard to that coveted position. Derval's efforts have not been altogether successful. Yvonne lacks the bouncy character of a Mistinguett and admits herself that she can't sing.

Seats in the main hall sell for slightly over $5. A big share of the audience today is made up of Americans, tourists and many GIs on leave.

A sign at the entrance says in English, "Beware. Do not drop chewing gum on the carpets." There is no such sign in French.

Is There Freedom of Decision?

Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson said in an address recently:

"In our free enterprise system, the source of our economic power lies in the freedom of both producers and consumers to make their own decisions—decisions on markets, decisions on new products, decisions on purchases, decisions on spending versus saving, decisions on what the course of the economy may be in the future. It is these decisions—the millions of them which are made every day—which determine whether the wheels of our economy will turn at a faster or slower rate."

This is a very well-written statement of the rights of the individual in the capitalist system, but it is not true in the United States or anywhere else in the year 1936.

In the first place, the income tax, not only the enormous share that it takes of each person's earnings but the brutal method of collection, reduces the individual's right of decision to a greater or lesser degree, depending upon his earnings and the nature of his business.

Furthermore, the government's manipulation of the value of money and of prices by subsidies and supports and other gimmicks further reduces the individual's authority over his own earnings.

Money is an exchange for services and goods and is a measure which, when constant, permits planning. When the value of money becomes inconstant and prices fluctuate upward, a share of each individual's earnings disappears into nothingness.

The Secretary of the Treasury ought to explain what he means to do about that when he describes the rights of decision on the part of free men. Men are only fully free when no one is manipulating their earnings by destroying values.

The head of a family is avoiding postnuptial expenditures at this moment because he feels that the market is outpriced and that prices must come down to a reasonable level.

What is a reasonable level? It is a figure which the consumer can afford to pay without suspecting that he is being

Diet and Health Heredity Role Small As Cause of Cancer

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

MANY of you who are reading this column are carrying a secret burden—a burden of fear. You are afraid you are doomed to die of cancer because your father, mother, sister or brother died of this disease. You fear you will inherit or already have inherited cancer.

Well, let me put this fear to rest right now.

Has Small Part

I'm not going to tell you that heredity doesn't play a part in the cancer picture. Indications are that it does, but not in the proportion that most of you probably believe.

As with some other diseases, heredity sometimes influences development of some cancers. However, studies show that instances where heredity plays a critical part in development of cancer are relatively rare.

Variety of Factors

Now we are pretty sure that a variety of factors influence development of cancer. We know what some of them are, but, of course, not all of them.

Heredity might be a predisposing factor. It might help set the stage for development of cancer, but we don't believe that it is an actual cause. And if it is a predisposing factor it apparently is so only in limited types of cancer.

You have heard reports, I'm sure, that cancer "runs in a family"; that several members of one family have been stricken with the disease.

Well, cancer kills about 250,000 Americans every year. In that number there are bound to be some relatives.

What about the disease having killed several generations in the same family? Only recently has the diagnosis of cancer become reliable on a wide enough front to establish cancer as a definite cause of death. Who can be sure of reports made 30, 40 and 50 years ago?

Certain Types

Experiments with animals indicate that certain types of cancer might be hereditary—in animals.

So far as humans are concerned, however, the role heredity plays in cancer appears to be so small that it should be no cause for worry.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A. B.: I have pyorrhea. How should I have it treated?

Answer: Usually a person suffering from pyorrhea should have his dentist scale the teeth to remove any tartar and other deposits that accumulate between the teeth around the gum lining. Surgical treatment may be helpful.

You should brush your teeth at least twice a day, as well as massage the gums.

Humphrey Doubts Slump To Worsen

PITTSBURGH (AP)—George M. Humphrey, chairman of National Steel Corp. and former secretary of the Treasury, believes the recession probably won't become any worse unless the public becomes alarmed.

"I can't see anything that would throw us into a further decline unless people become alarmed by the rising cost-of-living in the face of continued unemployment," he said.

He predicted an upward trend in the economy generally and the steel business specifically in the last half of this year.

Workman Compensation Premium Slashed

COLUMBUS (AP)—For the second straight year, premiums paid by public employers into the state workmen's compensation fund have been reduced.

Gov. C. William O'Neill announced a $550,000 cut in premiums and said it means a 9.5 per cent savings to cities, villages, townships, special districts, schools and libraries for the protection of injured workers. The cut brings the reduction in premium payments to 19 per cent in two years.

Actress Waits On TV To Grow

Anne Baxter Says Scripts Good Now

NEW YORK (AP)—When television was born a dozen years ago there were two ways for a movie actress to look at it, says Anne Baxter.

"Either you got in on the ground floor or you decided to wait and see if it grew into something good. I waited, and I'm glad I did, for I feel it's improved greatly."

Although Miss Baxter is not up to her neck in the medium and certainly not over her pretty head in it, she definitely has dipped a small foot into television.

Next Sunday, for example, she will play a young lady of slightly tarnished brassiness in Western stagecoach days on G. E. Theater (CBS-TV). "Stop-over" is, in her own words, loads of fun.

Miss Baxter took the assignment because she believed it was a fine script. And a good script, she says, is essential if an actress would do a good job on the home screen.

Before Miss Baxter made her television debut on G. E. Theater a couple of years ago she read about 80 TV scripts over a long period of time—and turned down every one.

"To make a generalization about them," she said, "they either contained too much story or too little. Most of them were written by people who didn't understand the television medium because they felt superior to it."

But times have changed, she says, and the scripts are improving.

Seaford, Del., once a ship building center, is now a principal manufacturing town for Nylon thread.

You're always prepared for a Party from your Pantry!

with COKE and these quick-fix foods on hand!

YOUR GROCER IS FEATURING THEM NOW!

Unexpected guests? A busy day? A midnight snack to make? You can turn out these delicious dishes in a jiffy if yours is a well-provisioned pantry. So why not stock up on the makings at your grocer's, today. And—remember plenty of Coca-Cola. So good in taste and in such good taste... Coke really puts the finishing touches on an impromptu meal.

CHICKEN AND WAFFLES. Fry frozen chicken parts until golden brown, serve with waffles—they're so easy to make from a prepared mix. Grand late supper dish with ice-cold Coca-Cola! Coke is your guests' favorite—the best-loved sparkling drink in all the world, enjoyed over 58 million times each day.

GELATIN FRUIT DESSERT. Mold tangy lime or lemon gelatin, surround on platter with chilled, canned fruit cocktail flavored with grated lime or lemon rind. Serve with your favorite assortment of sweet cookies and Coca-Cola. Extra-good because... Coke actually freshens up your taste between bites.

CHEESEBURGER. Season quick-frozen ground beef with basil. Sauté until almost done, top with square of American cheese, cook in covered skillet until cheese melts. Only one sparkling drink goes so well with 'burgers—Coke! So good in taste, in such good taste—serving Coca-Cola makes 'burgers a meal in themselves.

Sorority Chapter Enjoys Talk By Mr. Minshall

Mr. Robert Minshall was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of Xi Beta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held in the home of Mrs. Charles Pfersick.

Mr. Minshall showed colored slides taken in England, Netherlands and Belgium during the international plowing matches which were held in England in 1956.

Mr. Minshall stated that the participation of the United States in these matches is a part of President Eisenhower's "people to people" program of international good will. He said that Eisenhower felt that much can be gained by the contact of individuals of different countries.

Mr. Minshall spoke of the great project of reclaiming land from the sea that is being carried on in the Netherlands. He pointed out that this program has been planned for centuries but no funds were available until the Marshall Plan aid was given by the United States.

The speaker also recounted many interesting situations that arose during the time the representatives from other countries were in Ohio last fall for the International Plowing Matches at Peebles.

During the business session Mrs. Guy Briggs, president - elect, appointed standing committees for the coming year.

Mrs. John Richards and Mrs. W. E. Williams were appointed delegates to represent the chapter at the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority state convention in Cincinnati May 16-18.

Mrs. Ray Jennings reported on the Founder's Day dinner to be held May 5. Reports of the standing committees were given by Mrs. Floyd West and Mrs. Richards.

Mrs. Robert Olinger, vice president, welcomed Mrs. Virgil Lowe as a guest.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Pfersick.

Miss Melvin Hostess At Dinner Wednesday

Miss Marie Melvin entertained woman city employees with a potluck dinner in her home Wednesday night.

The tables were beautifully appointed with arrangements of spring flowers.

Following the dinner, informal visiting was enjoyed.

Those attending the gala affair were Mrs. Jack West, Mrs. Louise Heath, Mrs. Naomi Reif, Mrs. Helen McCoy, Mrs. Rodney Shelton, Mrs. Ray Jennings, Mrs. Ruth Glass and Mrs. Lewis Elliott.

Miss Melvin was assisted in the hospitalities by Mrs. Heath.

You can make your own melba toast by trimming the crusts from very thin pieces of bread and baking the slices until crisp and light brown in a slow oven.

Church Class Meeting Held In Mills Home

The regular meeting of the Kings Daughters Class of the First Christian Church was held in the home of Mrs. Charles Mills Jr.

Mrs. Carl Meriweather, class president, conducted the meeting. Prayer was led by Mrs. Naomi Helm.

Mrs. Robert Maust presented the devotions, using as her subject "Gardens." A violin solo was given by Mrs. Charles Sheridan. Mrs. Maust read a poem entitled "The Garden of God."

The lesson study on "Rahab" was conducted by Mrs. Helm. The study was closed with a hymn sung by the group.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Mills, assisted by Mrs. Maust and Mrs. Harold Callender.

JUST YOU WAIT, HENRY HIGGINS, and every American male will be wearing some version of your now famous LOW-CUT CARBON SWEATER! Its "sloppiness," its handknit look, its pockets, its traditional heather colorings are already familiar to every observer of campus or fairway. "My Fair Lady" makes all the girls in the audience want to look pretty but all the young men want to look like Henry Higgins! Our picture shows what's happening, and in this case the fair lady seems to have been influenced by the new look in sweaters, too. Here is a CREW NECK PULLOVER worn over her skirt to put the waistline in fashionable eclipse, but the combination of blonde hair, white sweater, and soft blue tweed skirt, produces a picture as fair as any that adorns the Broadway billboards!

Soraya Now Is Only Latest
On Long List of Ex-Queens

CAIRO (U)—The trouble with being a queen in the Middle East is that it isn't often a permanent job. Around here there are more ex-queens than reigning queens. Some of the world's most beautiful women have been discarded by Arab monarchs in the past few years. Among the ex-queens are Farida and Nourin of Iran, Farida and Nourin of Egypt, Dina of Jordan, two ex-wives of Imam Ahmed of Yemen and an estimated 200 women divorced by King Saud and his fabulous father King Ibn Saud. The chief duty of a queen in the Middle East is to bear sons. Daughters are unacceptable as substitutes. There must be at least one male heir, and the more sons the better. Outside Saudi Arabia, most modern Middle Eastern queens have failed to produce. Moslem traditions recognize failure of a wife to bear a son as grounds for divorce or marrying a second wife. Latest royal divorcee is the beautiful Soraya, who lost her throne because she was childless. The Shah's first queen had likewise failed. She was Farida, most beautiful of a lovely set of sisters of Egypt's ex-King Farouk. Farida bore a daughter, the Princess Shahnaz, but no sons. Farida quarreled with the Shah and returned to Cairo in 1945 to live in lonely misery nearly four years till she learned the Shah had divorced her. She later married Colonel Ismail Sherin of the Egyptian army. Farouk had to try two queens before fathering a male heir. And then it was too late to help his dynasty very much. Farouk's first wife was Farida, a beautiful and respected woman. She bore Farouk three daughters, but no sons and has remained single for the nine years since her divorce. She lives in a villa near Cairo on the pyramids road and rarely sees her daughters, who live with their father in Europe. Nourin, Farouk's second wife, bore a son, Ahmed Fuad, who became King of Egypt when he was barely a year old. The infant's reign lasted less than a year. It was terminated when Egypt became a republic. Nourin divorced Farouk after he had abdicated. She later married Egyptian physician Dr. Adham Nakhil, whom she subsequently divorced. Nourin now lives with her mother in Beirut. Jordan's Queen Dina lives in Cairo in an uncertain position. Friends of King Hussein confirm that he has divorced Dina. The Queen never has confirmed this, however. There seems to remain some doubt the divorce formalities have been completed.

Glamorous Frau Willy Sets
Tongues Wagging in Berlin

By SEMOUR TOPPING
AP Staff Writer
BERLIN (U)—Germany's society dowagers are learning about modern glamor from a youthful Berlin housewife.

Frau Willy Brandt, wife of the new Socialist Lord Mayor of West Berlin, has landed with a fashionable splash among the staid somber-clad ladies of the top government set.

Not so long ago, the dowager tongues clucked when the beautiful Norwegian-born Lord Mayor would appear at official parties in one of her stunning strapless sheath gowns.

It was hard to take for stiff-necked traditionalists who still live by the rule that German matrons should be concerned with little more than "kitchen, children, and church."

"They thought I was only interested in fashions," recalled Frau Brandt with a twinkle. But now the ripples in the drawing rooms have just about faded away. The Berliners have taken to their Lord Mayor.

Frau Brandt is popular not only as the new lady of glamor but also as the good hausfrau who leaves politics to her handsome 44-year-old husband.

A visit to the Brandts, and their two sons, Peter, 9, and Lars, 6, at the Lord Mayor's mansion is full of surprises.

Invited to drop in, the writer drove past the Brandts twice before discovering that the "mansion" was the little grey stucco two-family house with the boys' bicycle parked before the door.

The Lord Mayor with smiling blue eyes answered the doorbell and took my coat.

Frau Brandt's husband, whose meteoric rise parallels the career of America's Vice President Richard Nixon, ranks high. As Lord Mayor of this big outpost city of two million people behind the Iron Curtain, he also serves as president of West Germany's upper parliamentary house.

But the Brandts, despite their $952 a month income, have chosen to keep on living in their rented four-room apartment. In housing-short Berlin where some families live jammed into one room, this has not gone unnoticed.

"I'm happy to cook, wash and clean my own house," says Frau Brandt.

For big official parties, the Lord Mayor and his wife have the use of West Berlin's Government House.

MRS. BRANDT also has a "homey" side demonstrated here as she sits with son Lars, 6, at a children's costume party.

The Brandts are deluged by invitations. "When we are asked out," confessed Frau Brandt, "I call my husband and ask 'Do we have to?' If he says 'no,' then I prefer to stay home with the boys. I do my shopping in the Berlin houses and I find their clothes more wearable than those from Paris.

"Sack line? Yes. But not the Trapeze line for me. It's only for very young girls."

Frau Brandt, the former Rut Hansen, was born in Harmar, a little town 75 miles north of Oslo, the youngest of four daughters. Her father died when she was 3 and her mother worked in a dairy to support the family.

As the young widow of a Norwegian Railway official, she met Brandt in Stockholm in 1944 when both were refugees from the Nazis.

It wasn't easy at first for Frau Brandt to adopt her husband's native land — so soon after World War II and the Nazi occupation of Norway.

"At first I hated Berlin," Frau Brandt admitted. "I looked at every German and asked myself: 'Was he a Nazi?'"

"But then came the Russian blockade and I saw what stuff the Berliners have in them. And I said to myself: 'I can live here.'"

"Now," said Frau Brandt, "I love Berlin."

WHEN OCCASION demands Mrs. Willy Brandt brings plenty of glamor to her duties as wife of West Berlin's Lord Mayor.

'Shrimp Wiggle'
Right Tasty Dish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Every once in a while someone asks us for a recipe for shrimp wiggle. When we told a friend we didn't know how the dish got its name or where and when it originated, she hazarded a guess that it originally arrived with the chafing dish.

She said her own acquaintance with shrimp wiggle went back to her college dormitory days in the 20's when she and her friends prepared it over canned heat with canned peas, canned shrimp and a can of milk. Naturally they served it with crackers.

Sure enough, in Fannie Farmer's "Chafing Dish Possibilities," published in 1898, we find a recipe for shrimp wiggle composed of a thin white sauce and equal parts of cooked shrimp and green peas; salt and pepper are the only seasonings the austere Miss Farmer added.

When that other old-time standard work, "The Settlement Cook Book" got around to listing the dish, paprika was included. Later recipes, we notice, sometimes include onion.

HERE'S our own latest version of shrimp wiggle — with a goodly amount of Worcestershire sauce and some Tabasco Sauce, as well as a canned pimiento, to give it extra zest.

This recipe is a fine one for career girls and busy mothers because it should be left in the refrigerator overnight so the sauce will thicken and the flavors develop.

We like it served with crisp buttered toast and a crisp tossed salad. Make the toast as usual, then butter it lavishly and put it in the oven (on aluminum foil) to get really crisp and have the butter soak in.

SHRIMP WIGGLE
INGREDIENTS: 1 pound medium-sized shrimp, 1 can (1 pound and 1 ounce) young small green peas, milk, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, Tabasco sauce, 1 drained canned pimiento (minced).

METHOD: Cook the shrimp in lightly salted simmering water to cover; drain; shell; devein. Cut each shrimp in half lengthwise. Drain peas thoroughly; add enough

SHRIMP WIGGLE was an austere dish when it arrived with the chafing dish but spicy seasonings have been added since then. Now we have it with Worcestershire and Tabasco sauces.

milk to the pea liquid to make 2 cups. Melt butter in medium-sized saucepan over low heat; stir in flour. Add milk mixture all at once; cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until bubbly and thickened. Stir in salt, Worcestershire sauce, Tabasco sauce (to taste) and minced pimiento. Add shrimp and drained peas. Cover and cool. Turn into container; cover tightly; refrigerate overnight so sauce will thicken and flavors develop. Reheat gently in saucepan over low heat stirring often. Makes 4 servings.

Good Advice for 'Clean-Up Week'

Garbage Disposal Important
To Health, Sanitarian Says

People in all parts of Fayette County, city, villages and rural sections, are being urged to give special attention to proper handling, storage and disposal of garbage and refuse, by John G. Todd, Fayette County sanitarian.

Todd pointed out that "in our daily living, we all create garbage and refuse. Proper storage and disposal of such material is necessary to prevent flies, rats and nuisance complaints."

The sanitarian said that this has become a problem everywhere and is a big factor in public health in this and other communities.

He calls attention to the fact that flies carry germs which cause dysentery, typhoid fever and summer diarrhea.

"RATS CARRY DISEASE too. Worse, they damage buildings, cause fires and cost money. The food rats eat cost us thousands of dollars a year, even disregarding the damage they do."

The Health Department offers the following suggestions for proper storage of garbage and refuse:

- 1 - Keep garbage and refuse cans on wood or metal platforms. This improves cleanliness and keeps the bottom of cans from rusting.

- 2 - Cans, platform and storage area should be kept clean.

- 3 - When possible, wrap garbage in several thickness of paper to make cleaning of can easier.

- 4 - Have garbage cans emptied often; do not permit them to fill up and run over.

- 5 - During warm weather, spray can with insecticide to control insects.

Todd says: "If each householder will follow these suggestions, we will have fewer flies, rats and nuisance complaints to contend with."

Laundry Wage Rate
Board To Be Named

COLUMBUS (AP)—A board, made up of three representatives each from labor, industry and the public, will be appointed soon to consider minimum wage rates for Ohio's laundry industry.

Hugh D. Wait, state director of industrial relations, said he will appoint the nine-member board following completion of a survey covering 1,719 dry cleaning and laundry establishments which will be covered by the minimum wage scale.

Reclamation Bureau engineers say enough concrete to build a four-foot sidewalk around the world will be used in the construction of the Grand Canyon Dam near Page, Ariz.

APING MEN—Bally, a circus chimp, apes her trainer, Arnold J. Costine, at the bathroom mirror in Lewisburg, Pa. She picked up the knack of using an electric shaver, and gives herself the once-over every week. She's thorough—shaves her tongue and inside upper lip. (International)

Spring Snow Maroons South Montana Area

RED LODGE, Mont. (AP)—This southern Montana community was marooned by waist-deep snow Wednesday as a spring storm continued its wind, rain, and snow assault on the state. It was so deep the weather observer couldn't go out to measure it.

I. A. Draper, cooperative weather observer for the Red Lodge area, said the storm was "the worst I ever saw in 56 years of recording." Schools were closed. Traffic was at a standstill.

An 8-ounce can is sometimes called a "buffet" can; it holds one cup and fruit and vegetable are packed in it as well as some other specialties.

4-H Club
Activities

YOUNG ATOMIC FARMERS
The Young Atomic Farmers 4-H Club met at the Olive School at 8 p. m. April 15. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mike Wagner. Twenty one members and one guest answered roll call.

Project books were distributed and the different projects discussed. Steer club members were reminded of the county tour on April 19.

Refreshments were served by Philip Stevenson and Linda and Ruth Cockerill.

The next meeting will be April 29 at the school building.

Ex-Counterspy Tries, Fails To Soothe Ex-Red

DALLAS (AP)—Former FBI counterspy Herbert Philbrick offered to patch up hard feelings with the boss of the old Daily Worker, John Gates, Wednesday but it was no go.

Gates held memories of a stretch in the Atlanta pen for conviction of conspiracy toward the government. Philbrick's testimony helped put him there.

They argued a few pros and cons of communism during a panel discussion before an overflow crowd of more than 3,400 students at Southern Methodist University. The school said the talks would give the students an insight into communism and help them combat it.

Backstage before the talks, photographers tried to get the two to pose together. "I will but I don't believe Mr. Gates is willing," Philbrick said.

"He's a fake and a phony," Gates snarled at newsmen. Gates said he was no longer a Communist, having quit the party two days after the Daily Worker folded, but a Democratic Socialist.

CONSERVATION BEAVERS

The Conservation Beavers met for their regular meeting at the Farm Bureau Auditorium. The meeting was opened by the president, Randy Bolton. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The health officer, Mike White-side, gave a short report on cleanliness. Advisor David Barchet led in the discussion on "Camping and Conservation." Work in the project books was assigned for the next meeting. A meeting to discuss a camping trip is to be held at the home of Randy Bolton.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Mike Whiteside was the refreshment chairman.

Dick Highfield

"Interpretation of Sound" — Linda Ashbaugh; "Nature of Light" — June Purdom; "Principle of Magnification" — Linda Parrett.

TALENT SHOW WINNERS

Beverly and Sandra Evans, two Bloomington students, placed first in the upper bracket of the New Holland talent show last Friday night with their musical reading, "Poor Old Mauds."

Ten students in grades 7 through 12 had straight As in their major subjects, exclusive of physical education and conduct, for the past six weeks.

They are: Seventh Grade, David Craig, Eighth Grade, Joyce Cannon, Alice Craig; Ninth Grade, Mike Coil; Tenth Grade, Jimmy Don Chrisman, John Cunningham; Eleventh Grade, Stephen Foster, Jim Hidy, Buddy Snyder; Twelfth Grade, Don Hidy.

Cora is the Greek word for "Maiden."

HOBNOBBING — Members of the Pixies and the Magic Makers 4-H clubs visited Wednesday at the Governor's Mansion in Columbus, where they were greeted and shown around the house and grounds by the governor's wife, Mrs. C. William O'Neill. The 32 girls, who were guests of Rep. Virgil Perrill, also lunched at the Neil House and toured the State House. Leaders, junior leaders and aides in the picture are, from left, Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Joe Loudner of the Pixies, Mrs. David Lucas of the Magic Makers, Mrs. Tom Hodson of the Pixies, Mrs. John Rhoads, Miss Pat Hagan, Miss Jowanda Wilson and Mrs. Billie Wilson.

Brother's Keeper

DUBOIS, Pa. — Police stopped two brothers on a street here pulling on cigarette butts. The boys—aged 5 and 6—were reprimanded for smoking and sent home. Police found the pockets of one boy's pants filled with half-smoked butts. "These aren't my pants, he explained. 'They're my brother's.'"

Talents and Efforts of Many Combined To Produce First Play

JUST A SCENE FROM 'HIS AND HERS'—To lend realism to the Community Players production to be staged Monday and Tuesday in the high school auditorium, a courtroom scene was taken to the Fayette County Common Pleas Courtroom for rehearsal. Testifying in her own behalf in a plagiarism suit by her husband played by Malcom Kelley, who is not in the picture, Mrs. Robert Green says it isn't so. James Evans, in the role of the judge sits wisely on the bench while Dr. William Lawyer, as Mrs. Green's attorney, cross-examines her. Mrs. James Evans, as the court reporter, takes down the testimony.

There is more to the Community Players than will meet the eye when this young little theater-type organization stages its first production next Monday and Tuesday nights in the high school auditorium here.

The Community Players was formed here less than a year ago as a means to develop latent acting talent and give those who have had some stage experience an opportunity to continue. All of the members joined the group to indulge themselves in their hobby.

They also are anxious to share their hobby with others by providing entertainment for them with their stage plays.

The first production, "His and Hers," is a three-act comedy that was a hit on Broadway, the real test of a play's worth. The story revolves about the trials and tribulations of a husband and wife playwright team, whose bickering eventually threatens their marriage.

WHILE the audience is applauding the actors on the stage, more than half of the 40 Community Players, whose efforts are so important to staging the play, will remain unseen backstage, doing the more prosaic but essential jobs.

The heaviest responsibility rests on Horace Jacobs, the producer, and Mrs. Tom Gormley, the director, and their assistants, Mrs. James Evans and Mrs. J. E. Tremlett.

Stage management and scenery are in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McMullen and Mrs. John P. Case. Harry Speakman supervises the lighting. Mrs. Sarah Jones of Milledgeville makes the arrangements for all the properties—that is, the stage furnishings, including all the little things which lend realism to the setting.

Mrs. Robert Hagerty, WHS speech and drama teacher, Mrs. William Lawyer, Mrs. Gene Clay and Mrs. Barbara Bartling (who also doubles with a role in the play) will take care of the make-up for the actors.

Miss Jean Boylan and Mrs. Evans have to make certain the costumes suit the occasion.

Mrs. Tom Christopher is the business manager and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed are in charge of the tickets.

Dr. William Lawyer (also a member of the cast), Mrs. Donna Cormier and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willis Jr. are getting out the programs and Mrs. Roy Wipert, Mrs. Evans, Miss Helen Slavens and Charles Pensyl have been handling the publicity.

Leading roles in the play are taken by Mrs. Robert Green and Malcom Kelly, Bloomington High School speech and English teacher. They are the husband and wife playwright team.

Other members of the cast are Mrs. Bartling, Tom Gormley, Mrs. Ned Abbott, Mrs. Verne Haugen, Dr. Ned Abbott, Verne Haugen, Dr. Lawyer, James Evans and Mrs. Robert Willis.

The Community Players plan to present two plays a year. Many of those working behind the scenes in this first production will get to take their turn behind the footlights for the next one. By the same token, many of the actors in this one will take their places behind the scenes in the second.

Revival Services In Second Week

GOOD HOPE — The revival series which started April 13 in the Calvary Baptist Church in Good Hope has been extended to run through next Sunday, the Rev. Robert E. Winterton, the pastor, announced today.

Originally, the revival was scheduled for one week, with the Rev. Billy Lucas, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hillsboro, the evangelist.

The Rev. Mr. Lucas left Monday for Alabama where he had previous commitments for a revival. The Rev. Mr. Winterton is now conducting the Good Hope services, which are held daily at 8 p. m. Special vocal music is provided by The Harmonettes, a quartet of Washington C. H. women.

The Rev. Mr. Winterton said the congregation has been averaging around 100 during the series.

Paroled Killer Sends

Thanks Note to Judge

CLEVELAND (AP)—Paroled thrill killer Nathan Leopold has written a local judge that his hospital laboratory work in Puerto Rico is interesting but arduous.

The letter was addressed to Common Pleas Judge Samuel H. Silbert, who last fall helped back Leopold's parole. The convict was serving a life sentence for the 1924 killing of Bobby Franks.

Leopold, 53, wrote to thank the judge for his help and described his work on the Brethren Service Project in Castaner, Puerto Rico.

Movies Said Aiding 'Enemy'

Hollywood's Chief
Foe, TV, Gets Star

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — The movie business continues to give aid and comfort to the enemy.

Everyone in the film business admits that TV is the element that triggered the movie depression. Yet the movies performed their own version of hari-kiri by selling their immense libraries for use on the late, late show.

Now the studios are doing TV another favor by building up stars for TV to cash in with.

Case in point: Jeff Richards. Friday night, Jeff starts a new NBC series called Jefferson Drum. Says he: "It's not really like other TV Westerns. I play a newspaper editor who tries to solve situations without a gun, if possible."

TV can thank MGM for creating its new star. For six years, Jeff was under contract to the studio, become a top attraction. But he never really got the chance.

"I said I wanted out. I got out. Many of us predicted he would too — after paying $4,400 of my salary back to them for the time I wasn't working."

He was offered several TV series. He held off, figuring he'd see how the picture business was. The picture business was bad. Then he got a couple of pictures,

Prosecutor Drops Boy-Killing Case

CINCINNATI — The case of Abe Savage Jr., who was killed by police bullets on March 31 while trying to elude capture, will not be taken before the Hamilton County Grand Jury, Prosecutor C. Watson Hoyer has announced.

Three policemen were charged with murder by the boy's father but the case was dismissed by Police Court Judge Clarence Denning several days ago.

Young Savage was shot, police reported, when he ran through a red traffic light, ignored three road blocks and tried to force their cars off the street.

Cincy Area Foundry Labor Talks Booked

HAMILTON — Federal Mediator James Bentley has called a meeting for Friday in Cincinnati of representatives of striking moulders and 18 plant owners in another effort to end a strike which began 68 days ago.

Approximately 1,800 union workers in plants in Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton have been on strike over a new contract.

signed a two-picture-a-year deal for five years with Alan Ladd's Jaguar Productions, made the Jefferson Drum deal.

He now is earning thrice his old MGM salary in films, twice that amount in TV, plus a percentage of the profits.

Effort To Cut New Car List Only Moderately Successful

DETROIT — The auto industry's effort to cut new car inventories has been only moderately successful.

Sharp reductions in production and intensified sales drives reduced dealer stocks only by about 11,000 units last month. Leading executives say there is no indication of a sales upturn in the months immediately ahead.

L. L. Colbert, Chrysler Corp. president, told stockholders a few days ago every effort is being made to stimulate sales but the corporation's January-March operations would show a loss.

With an output so far this year of about 200,000 units, Chrysler

Armco Said Operating Shade Over Half Speed

MIDDLETOWN — Armco Steel Corp. is operating only a little better than fifty per cent of capacity, employees have been told by President Ralph Gray.

Nevertheless, he told them, he is confident the situation will improve. He noted that the industry is operating at a lower percentage of capacity than at any time in the last twenty years.

is down approximately a quarter-million units from comparable 1957. Ford also is nearly a quarter-million units behind and General Motors about 195,000.

The car makers last year said the traditional spring upsurge in new car demand was a thing of the past that seasonal influences no longer were factors in auto merchandising.

Last year the industry sold just under six million new cars.

At the present rate of sales, the industry would have difficulty attaining a 12-month total of even 4½ million units. A total of 4, 800,000, including 300,000 imported cars, is being talked about in some quarters.

But price discounts already are being offered by most retailers. Right now nobody is bold enough to venture a prediction as to what may happen to car prices in the cleanup period that starts in the July-September quarter and runs right through to the end of the model year.

About the surest thing right now is that there will be price hikes when the 1959 models are introduced.

Dad's a Cheapskate

MARION, Ind. — Burl Pegden failed in attempts to get a pair of cigars from his brother Claude, after receiving a birth announcement saying Claude had become the father of twin boys. The announcement had been mailed in 1946.

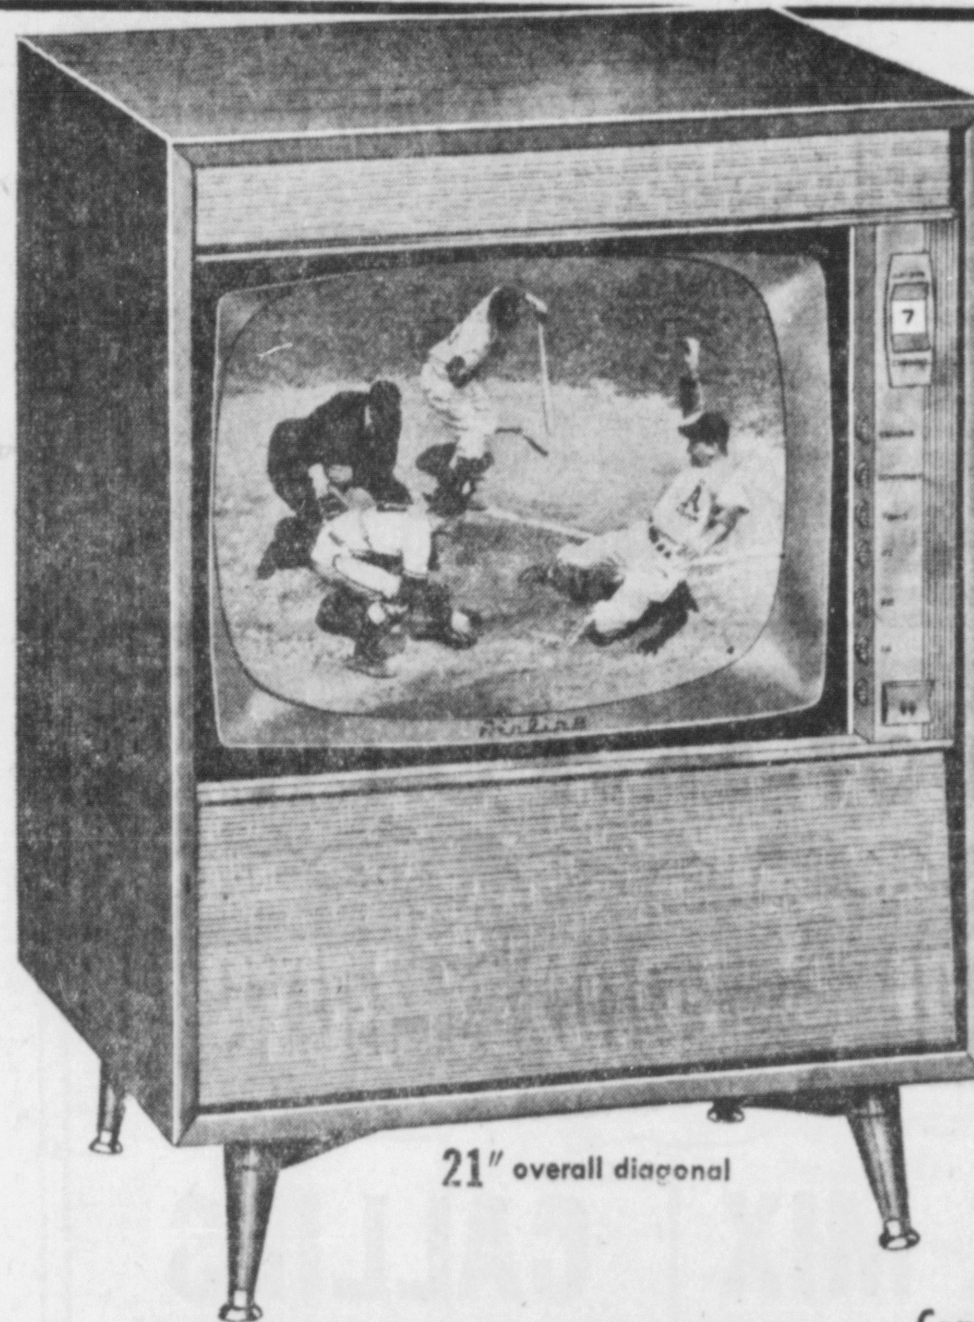

Many new cars made their first appearance last Sunday — and some finished amid the winners. Several track records were broken.

Harold Smith of Xenia had a car on the track Sunday that demonstrated exceptionally high speeds. Smith had to bow out of the feature after a spin-out, but both Smith and the feature winner, Dick Freeman, will be back this Sunday.

Morgan Friday evening. This will be for the members and families.

Helen and Barbara Williamson served refreshments with Barbara giving the invocation.

Those present were Helen and Betty Anderson, Sondra and Gerald Lee Meriman, Jeanie and Timmy Creamer, Becky Blair, Cheryl Waddell, Helen and Barbara Williamson, Penny Rankin, Wanda and Darrell Ankrom and J. P. Morgan. Adults were Mrs. Thomas Ankrom, Mrs. Edward Rankin and Mrs. Robert Slocumb.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Klontz and son Kurt entertained with a surprise birthday party in honor of the hosts' sister Frances on her fourteenth birthday Tuesday evening at their home.

Games and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening. Prizes were awarded to Linda Young and Joe Lane. Cakes and light snacks were served as the evening progressed.

The honored guest opened her many gifts and graciously responded.

At the close of the evening refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served to the guests by the host and hostess, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klontz and Miss Jo Ann DeWeese. The five tables were arranged with individual favors and birthday decorations.

BOY SCOUTS MEET

The Milledgeville Boy Scout Troop 303 met at the Methodist Church Tuesday evening with the new scout master, Donald Hodge, in charge. Each Scout reported his rank and the requirements yet to be achieved for advancement. The troop is working toward advancement and plans to hold a court of review on May 6 at the Methodist Church.

Curtis Hiser was received as a new member, advancing from the Cub Pack 303.

Several scouts made plans to go camping over the coming weekend, if the weather is favorable, to pass requirements for camping and outdoor cooking. Three scouts were camping last weekend and did some outdoor cooking.

The Scout benediction was led by Bill Creamer to close the meeting. Scouts present were Larry Conley, Harold Rolfe, Glenn Rankin, Vernon Klontz, Roger Hodge, David Harris, Johnny Bartruff, Curtis Hiser, Alan Bartruff, Billy Creamer, Ricky Huff and J. P. Morgan. Adults present were Eugene Klontz, Robert Creamer, Fred Hodge, John Morgan and the new Scout Master Donald Hodge.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Elsa Anderson, Mrs. Porter Anderson and Mrs. Lloyd Spencer and son Johnny of Springfield, Mrs. Hoyt Bock, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Marks and A. R. Rankin attended the Cinerama, "Search for Paradise," Sunday.

The Jasper PTO meeting has been postponed. It will be held at the Milledgeville School Friday evening, May 2, at 7:30 p. m. The program will be in charge of the 4-H Club members.

Mrs. Hoyt Bock will be hostess to the Milledgeville WSCS at her home Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m.

A Spring Rally for the MYF members will be held in the Blanchester High School auditorium Sunday from 3 to 5 p. m. Plans will be made for young people who want to attend camp at the new "Camden Camp." A program

Order of DeMolay Elects 3 Officers

Three new top officers of the Order of DeMolay here will be installed in the near future.

David Whiteside was elected master counselor to succeed Ronnie Sears, who is approaching the end of this term of office. Jack McDaniel was named senior counselor and Bradley McKillip the junior counselor.

Among the 25 boys and youths at the meeting in the Masonic Temple were the six who were inducted into the order at the inspection meeting. They are William Whiteside, Paul Cummings, Mike Coll, Mike Foster, John Schlichter and Gilbert Crouse.

The adult advisors complimented the members on their exemplification of the ritual for the inspection. Refreshments were served by the DeMolay Mothers Circle.

Israel Celebrating

10th Anniversary

PHILADELPHIA — Israel's 10th anniversary celebration begins in Philadelphia today with former President Harry Truman and U. S. Chief Justice Earl Warren doing the principal honors.

After Truman's speech at Independence Hall, he talks by telephone with Israel's Prime Minister David Ben Gurion in Jerusalem, touching off celebrations in 36 nations.

March Bond Sales

Total $58,450

In Fayette County

Ohio sales of Series E and Series H Savings Bonds for March exceeded $26 1/2 million for a decrease of approximately one percent over March of 1957, while Fayette County sales totaled $58,450.

Nationwide sales reached $418 million for an increase of 14 percent above last March, while combined redemptions were $396 million, down 10 percent, giving a sales excess of $22 million.

"Total sales of the Series E Savings Bond," reported R. H. Olinger, chairman of the Fayette County Savings Bonds Committee, "including interests accruals, went over the $100 billion mark early in March. Since May, 1941, when they were first offered, a total of $100,424 million of Series E Bonds have been issued.

Marietta College Gets Aid from Foundation

MARIETTA, O. — Grants totaling $52,500 for faculty bonuses and purchase of needed scientific equipment have been awarded Marietta College by the William G. and Marie Selby Foundation.

President W. Bay Irvine said the grants provide $5,000 per year for five years for the purchase of equipment for the college science departments. An additional $5,500 per year for five years will represent an annual gift of $100 for each of 55 faculty members.

Within the next ten years you likely will be able to dial a telephone number to Europe directly from any point in the United States, reports the Illinois Institute of Technology.

Easier Credit Being Felt in Grass Roots

Effectiveness in Doubt
Because of Climb
In Cost of Living

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — The first of the anti-recession moves—easier credit and cheaper money — is beginning to take hold today at the grass roots level.
Its effectiveness is in doubt still because, for one thing, it is partly offset by the stubbornly rising cost of living.
It's easier today for business and individuals to borrow — and then spend. It's harder for individuals to balance their budgets and buy more—an anti-recession move of whose effectiveness there is little doubt.

The easier credit move was started last fall by the Federal Reserve Board. In a series of moves it has given the banks a sizably larger amount of money to lend and it has forced interest rates down — although it took really drastic steps to make the banks drop their charges for loans.
Business and individuals have been led to the trough of easier credit and cheaper money. It is still to be seen whether they'll drink.

Business is still borrowing large sums, both on short-term loans from the banks and on long-term issues sold to investors. But the demand for those loans isn't as great as it was.

And the authorities hope that the latest moves for easier credit terms and more available funds now will lead corporations to revive expansion plans and business ventures and thus bolster the slipping economy.

Individuals have been borrowing less, especially for such sizable purchases as new cars and new houses. Easier credit is one of the prescriptions which the Washington doctors hope will restore health to the many industries involved, and it is the first prescription so far to be made readily available to the patient. Others, such as tax cuts and public works, are still in the talking stage.

But what to do about the rising cost of living is a tough problem. Higher prices are as widely blamed as dwindling incomes for what decline there has been in consumer buying — and a reversal of this trend is earnestly sought.

Over the continuing high price of manufactured consumer goods there is much debate. Which comes first, the wage rise or the price rise? How much of the high cost of manufacturing is built in now and beyond pruning?

And if prices don't come down, will any other anti-recession move be able to turn the trick?

New Graduates To Help Shortage of Teachers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Colleges will graduate 116,000 new teachers this spring, but the teacher shortage will still be critical.

This was the gist of a report issued today by the National Education Assn. after a survey.

Public schools now need 220,000 more teachers, the report said. Only about 85,000 of this spring's qualified graduates are expected to enter the teaching field.

Fit for a Dog

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Dogs these days are offered a variety of lodgings that rival their human masters' choice of quarters.

Milwaukee offers a Puppy Lodge, a Motel for Pets, a K-9 Ranch and, for dogs barking with a Spanish accent, a Chihuahua Hacienda.

Experts Say Safety Is 'Sold Like Soap'

COLUMBUS (AP) — Experts in the field of preserving life and limb say "you have to sell safety like you sell soap."

The experts are in Columbus for the 28th annual All-Ohio Safety Congress which continues through Thursday. The Ohio State Safety Council is sponsoring the event.

People is the big problem. Last year, 70 to 90 per cent of the job accidents in Ohio were caused by human failure.

Wapak Woman Dies From Burns in Home

WAPAKONETA (AP) — Mrs. Clifford Fisher, 38, died in Lima Memorial Hospital Wednesday of second and third degree burns she received Monday while washing in the basement of her home here.

Her clothing had been burned from her body but she managed to walk to a neighbor's house for help clad only in a housecoat.

Woman Says She'll Avoid 'No Comment'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Vivienne Suarez, Ohio's only woman candidate for governor, told newsmen Wednesday if elected she would have an open door policy to the press and would eliminate the political "no comment."

The Columbus housewife and mother of five is one of seven Democrats seeking the nomination for governor.

Women Voters Study Top National Issues

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — What topics are of such national importance to warrant intensive study for two years?

The League of Women Voters has been mulling over that question for four days and hopes to come up with the answer today.

Sentiment among the majority of 1,027 delegates to the League's 23rd national convention leans toward foreign policy and water resources as the two top items.

for governor. Her press conference at her home here, she explained, was her last "big campaign push in Columbus." She said she plans to go out over the state next week.

The open door policy was one of 24 planks on her platform which she reviewed for newsmen.

She said she favors such things as abolition of capital punishment; fair employment practices; legalized bingo; unemployment compensation, aid to the aged and welfare benefits to meet present day costs; and sterilization of feeble-minded and insane patients in mental hospitals upon recommendation of the medical staff.

She also backed supplemental unemployment benefits; a flat minimum wage for Ohio workers in line with federal fair labor standards act; a half to one per cent income tax (eliminating the sales tax and municipal income taxes); streamlining county government; property tax deduction for those with $2,500 a year or less income; economy at all times and "placing the money where it is most needed."

Mrs. Suarez said she is against the so-called right-to-work proposal.

Refrigerator Car Aide Makes Long Inspection

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — James Drones, making a routine inspection of a refrigerator car, got a pretty good look at it. He was sealed inside it for 46 hours.

Drones, 40, hopped into the car at Newark Monday, only to have the door slide shut behind him. His shouts and pounding were of no avail until a conductor, also making a routine check, finally came upon him Wednesday.

He was treated for exposure.

Detroit Fools Experts with Blazing Start

Tigers Only Game Back Of Yanks; Foytack's Pitching Gets Credit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fire-balling Paul Foytack and the Detroit Tigers are making liars out of those exhibition game statistics in the American League race.

The Tigers' exhibition 7-19 record was the worst in either league, and Foytack looked the worst of 'em all, with a 14.66 earned run average.

But at the moment the Tigers are second in the early standings, just a game back of the New York Yankees. Their question-mark pitching staff has four complete games.

Wednesday night, Foytack gained his second victory and second six-hit complete game with an 8-2 decision over the ambitious Kansas City Athletics. It gave him a neat 1.00 ERA.

Washington's surprising Senators junked the Yankees' winning streak at six, coming from behind for a 10-inning 4-1 victory. The Cleveland Indians added to Chicago's woes 2-0, with Herb Score ending any question of his comeback by allowing the White Sox just three singles. Boston ended its losing string at five with a 7-5 victory over Baltimore.

The Senators topped the Yankees on a run-scoring single by Jim Lemon, who was 3-for-4 and knocked in their first two runs in the third with a triple off Johnny Kucks.

Score struck out 13, for a total of 27 in his 21 innings, while outdueling Billy Pierce, who gave seven hits, three by Rocky Colavito and one Bobby Avila home run.

Pete Runnels, 3-for-3, singled home the clincher for Boston in the sixth and added a cushion run in the eighth.

The charitable Chicago Cubs, giving up runs almost as fast as they scored 'em, still lead the National League today, thanks to Bobby Thomson, the much-travelled hero who still chills the Dodgers.

It was Thomson, of course, who walked that playoff-winning home run against the Dodgers and gave the then New York Giants the 1951 pennant. And it was the Flying Scot, who since has shifted from the Giants to Milwaukee to the Cubs, who capped a come-from-behind ninth with a two-run double that beat Los Angeles 7-6 Wednesday night.

Four of the Dodger runs were unearned, but the Cubs shrugged it off with three in the ninth off loser Clem Labine.

The Cubs held a half-game lead over Cincinnati. The Redlegs had beaten Milwaukee and Lew Burdette, long-time nemesis, 2-0, on Bob Purkey's six-hit effort. Philadelphia rapped Pittsburgh 8-1, and San Francisco, scoring six in the last two innings, defeated St. Louis 8-7.

The Redlegs had only five hits off Burdette and reliever Gene Conley. But they clumped Purkey's double, an infield single, and an infield out and Frank Robinson's single for the runs in the sixth.

Jack Sanford, last year's top NL rookie with 11 victories, gained a 1-1 record with a seven-hitter and singled home two Philadelphia runs.

Rookie Orlando Cepeda, 3-for-5, and Daryl Spencer, 4-for-5, had a hand in just about all the Giant scoring. Spencer rammed a two-out, two-run homer that capped a four-run ninth triggered by Cepeda's two-run triple.

Redlegs To Stay In Cincy 5 Years

CINCINNATI — Cincinnati's rabid baseball fans can breathe easy again. It has become official that their beloved Redlegs will be here for at least five more years.

The Redleg directors Wednesday voted to sign an agreement with the city whereby Cincinnati and Hamilton County will spend two million dollars for parking facilities around Crosley Field. The club, in return, will pledge to remain here for at least five years.

Fowl Crosley Jr., president of the baseball club, signed the agreement and it then was hustled over to City Hall where City Manager C. A. Harrell OK'd it.

SWO Circuit Opening Near; Practice Set

There are still openings on the Washington C. H. team in the Southwestern Ohio League, Manager Tom Smalley announced Thursday.

The team will hold a regular practice on the Good Hope diamond at 2 p. m. Sunday, Smalley said, and anyone who wishes to try out last chance for new boys to join the team — the season opens at Greenfield on the following Sunday. Made up of the best younger ball players and a good many more mature diamondmen, the team will be playing its regular season in the seven-team SWO circuit that includes teams from all over this area.

Other teams from Fayette County are a Milfordville squad that plays in Jeffersonville and a Bloomingburg team. Both will be practicing Sunday also, Smalley said.

Rounding out the league are teams from the Chillicothe Reformatory, a Chillicothe Businessmen's squad, Blancheester and Greenfield. Smalley, who is secretary of the league, says he is hoping to find an eighth team by summer to avoid a bye spot on the schedule.

Valdes' Manager Shoots for Title

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Outspoken Bobby Gleason, manager of the heavyweight Nino Valdes, b. an his tub-thumping today for a title match after his fighter's split decision win over Mike DeJohn of Syracuse.

"I'm going to see Julius Helfand in New York and post a $5,000 bond and demand a championship match with Floyd Patterson," Gleason said after Wednesday night's fight. But in almost the same breath Gleason thought "a rematch with DeJohn would be a good thing."

Springfield Favored In Track Meet

DELAWARE — Springfield, winner in the Class AA division of the Ohio Wesleyan High School Relays for the last two years, is favored to retain its crown in the 27th renewal of the track meet here Saturday.

Xenia Woodrow Wilson, winner in the Class A division the last five seasons, also is an odds-on favorite to repeat.

More than 1,000 boys from dozens of Ohio high schools are expected to compete.

Wildlife Management 'Dad' Still Honored by Students

By DION HENDERSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Down by Plummer's Marsh, along the Baraboo Bluffs, Jim Regan's brush fire began to get out of hand. A neighbor planting young Norway pines on a nearby hillside, saw the danger, ran over to help. He filled a bucket with water at the farm well and disappeared in the billowing smoke. He never came back."

Thus, on April 21, 1948, Aldo Leopold died. The moment and the mood was described above by Prof. Clay Schoenfeld of the University of Wisconsin, long-time student and friend of Leopold, father of the science of wildlife management.

It is just over 25 years ago, now, that the great land ecologist formally founded the chair and the science at Wisconsin's state university. It is 10 years ago since he died fighting the grass fire on his sand country farm. But in a way, he is more present on the American scene now than he was during his lifetime.

Nowadays, Schoenfeld said recently in a review of Leopold's influence, "there is scarcely a technical paper in the field which does not continue to cite him. Leopold students dominate the profession of ecology. The Leopold spirit is as alive today as it was in 1948. Whenever men gather in the name of conservation — from Alberta to New Zealand and the Leopold message is still the most cogent to be quoted."

There have been great technicians since him. There even have been men who combined original science, teaching and ethical concepts. But there never has been a man who could catch the imagination of people who know nothing of game indices and care less, in the way that Leopold could, even in research.

Consider, for instance, a terminal essay to the vanished passenger pigeon, which concluded: "The pigeon lived by his desire for clustered grape and bursting beechnut, and by his contempt of miles and season. Things that Wisconsin did not offer him today, he sought and found tomorrow in Michigan, or Labrador, or Tennessee; to find them required only the free sky, and the will to fly his wings."

"But there are fruits in this land unknown to pigeons, and as yet to most men. Perhaps we too can live by our desires to find them, and by a contempt for miles and seasons, a love of free sky, and a will to fly our wings."

Herb Score Returns to Blazing Form

CLEVELAND — Memo to American League hitters:

Herb Score once again can fire that ball past you—his curve ball breaks sharply and his control is good. He's even fooling around with a slider to make things tougher.

The Cleveland Indians' star left-hander convinced the Chicago White Sox Wednesday that he has fully recovered from that accident last May 7 when a line drive struck him in the eye, sidelining him for the rest of the season.

Hurling bullets as he did two seasons ago when he won 20 and lost 9, the 24-year-old southpaw mowed down the White Sox 2-0 with a three-hitter and fanned 13 batters, tops in the major leagues so far this season. It gave him 27 strikeouts for the season in 21 2/3 innings pitched. He walked four.

Score, whose strikeouts have averaged better than nine a game since he joined the Indians in 1955, now has 374 in 333 2/3 innings.

"That's the pitcher I've heard about and have been waiting to see," observed Tribe Manager Bobby Bragan. "Score looked very good a couple of times this spring and had that fast ball snapping, but the difference was the breaking stuff. He was getting it over against the White Sox."

The 6-foot-1 1/2 inch blond blazer said it was one of those days when everything went perfect. Even a 44-minute delay because of rain failed to cool him off.

Racing Program Planned by Lebanon Lions Club

LEBANON — A benefit race program, sponsored by the Lebanon Kiwanis Club, will be held at 1:30 p. m. May 4 on the Warren County Fairgrounds. Profits are earmarked for underprivileged children.

A 90-cent donation will admit attendees to all nine races on the program. If rain forces postponement, the races will be held at 7:30 p. m. May 6.

22 Top Golfers Vie in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Select was the word today for the 22 golfers who set forth in the sixth annual $40,000 Tournament of Champions.

While Gene Littler has won the Las Vegas event three times, young Ken Venturi of San Francisco is the betting favorite in this resort where betting is legal.

Venturi is listed at 5-1. At 8-1 were Littler, Casper, Doug Ford and the recent Masters winner, Arnold Palmer.

IL Leaders Fail To Get Fast Start

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Toronto, Buffalo and Richmond, last year's first, second and third place clubs in the final International League standings, are having difficulty getting a winning streak underway this year. The three all to ether have scored only four victories compared to 16 losses.

In Wednesday's games, the Montreal Royals shut out the Miami Marlins, 3-0, the Columbus Jets blasted Buffalo 11-5, Havana beat Toronto 5-1, and Rochester defeated Richmond 4-1.

Bob Purkey Looks Like Good Buy

CINCINNATI — A few years ago, Gabe Paul, Cincinnati Redlegs general manager, gave the famous old trader, Branch Rickey, a trimming when he got Gus Bell from Pittsburgh for players who couldn't stay in the major leagues.

It's still a bit early to tell, of course, but it begins to look as if Paul may have pulled a somewhat similar deal when he talked Joe L. Brown, Rickey's successor, out of pitcher Bob Purkey.

Purkey now owns two of Cincinnati's four victories and Wednesday night's 2-0 shutout of Milwaukee was a masterpiece in more ways than one.

It stymied, at least for a time, the reports that he's a seven-inning pitcher. It gave the Redlegs a running start against Milwaukee, a club that beat them 18 of 22 times last year. And the Rhinelanders whipped Lew Burdette, the 1957 World Series hero who long has been one of the toughest pitchers in the league for them to lick.

Purkey scattered six hits over as many innings and rarely was in any serious trouble. He struck out five and walked only one.

Speaking of his pitching, Purkey said:

"I was using them all — the knuckler, slider and sinker. You've got to have more than one pitch to win and especially against a club like Milwaukee."

Tonight Brooks Lawrence, apparently recovered from an arm ailment, is scheduled to pitch against Milwaukee's Warren Spahn.

Sabina's Baseball Diamond Being Moved

SABINA — The Sabina Chamber of Commerce heard a report from Robert Case, chairman of the recreation committee at its recent meeting. The baseball diamond at the school ground is being moved and lights being moved to be installed on it. This work is well underway, Case said.

Orlando W. Hunt, chamber president, said that the solicitation for funds for recreation netted $507 and some money is expected from the village, as in the past. He said village council would determine the amount at the May meeting.

Changing The Subject

By JACK AYER

DOG'S BEST FRIEND
It seems pretty well agreed that man's best friend is the noble, selfless dog. If there is any contest about who is dog's best friend, let us get our bid in now for Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Wilson of 414 E. Market St., who certainly have a corner on canines hereabouts.

The Wilsons, whose dogs win ribbons with almost dead-end regularity are home this week between shows -- and with a passel of ribbons from the last couple of weeks to show for it.

Princess Penny, their prize Maltese, whose very distinctive picture was in the paper not too long ago took best of breed at the Dayton show in Troy's Hobart Arena, we are informed, and the Wilsons also collected two firsts and one reserve -- as well as another point towards a championship.

At Columbus the following week, Penny won another point and copped honors as best opposite sex, the champ being a hound from Toledo.

This week, the Wilsons are off to West Virginia, where two shows are in the offing. On Saturday, they are due to be in Huntington and on Sunday, Charleston.

FISH STORIES -- OLD BOOT DIVISION: One of the most fascinating aspects of fishing is not what gets away but what gets caught, unsought. Such is the experience of Ned Shaw of New Holland, as reported to us by Bob Lewis.

Shaw was fishing in Paint Creek on the Lowell Melvin farm Sunday ... casting, so the story goes, with these artificial bacon strips that seem to serve as pretty good bait.

He worked at it to no avail for about 15 minutes before coming up with a mussel, the kissin' cousin of a clam that is about as fish-like as you or I.

Somehow, the mussel had opened its shell and closed it right on the bacon strip. Shaw had to pry the shell open to rescue his lure.

Council Abates Admissions Tax For 8 Months

$6,000 in General Obligations Bonds Marked for Payment

Abatement of the city's 3 per cent admissions tax for the period from May 1 to Dec. 31 and arrangements to pay off approximately $6,000 in general obligations bonds constituted the only action taken by Council at its regular meeting Wednesday night.

The meeting was held at the home of Councilman A. H. Matson who has been ill for the past five months and has been unable to attend Council sessions at City Hall. His condition is improving.

Action on the admissions tax, charged against the Fayette Theater school athletic events and other profit-making performances not conducted for charitable purposes, means that there will be a "tax holiday" only between the dates specified. Tax due between Jan. 1 of this year and May 1 is payable before May 15.

JAMES CHAKERES, operator of the Fayette Theater, appeared before Council more than a month ago, pointing out that the admissions tax has meant the difference between breaking even and a financial loss at the theater. He indicated that it would be necessary to close the downtown movie house if the admissions tax, abolished by many cities, is continued here.

Last year the special tax brought slightly more than $1,000 into the city's treasury from all sources.

Action to pay off general obligation bonds (for the city's share in improving Routes 22, 35, 62 and 70 within the corporate limits) was in the form of an ordinance. The obligations will be met May 1.

This will cut the total city debt to approximately $100,000.

Councilmen also discussed street cleaning and sewer problems, but there was no formal action.

Hospital Orderly Admits Thievery From WCH Man

GREENFIELD — A former orderly at Greenfield Municipal Hospital who allegedly stole a watch and $693 from James Daley of Washington C. H. March 4, soon after Daley had been admitted to the hospital, pleaded guilty Wednesday to a larceny charge filed against him by the chairman of the hospital's Board of Trustees.

Kenneth Wayne Hush, 26, was held under $1,500 bond for Highland County grand jury action Monday.

Hush had been arrested near Key West, Fla., two weeks ago and waived extradition. He was returned to Greenfield Wednesday from Miami.

Hush entered his plea of guilty at a preliminary hearing before Mayor Robert J. Smith in Hillsboro.

Investigation after the hospital theft in early March revealed that Hush had left town and his trail was temporarily lost at Cincinnati.

Another Vending Machine Opened

Someone possibly the same person who has been hitting pop vendors at service stations around the city recently — broke open the soft drink vending machine at Barker's service station on Columbus Ave., sometime before 11:40 p. m. Wednesday, according to police.

Patrolmen noted that, although the machine was pried open, the vandals or vandals, had not taken $1 in change which was in the machine's coin box.

40 Area Roofers Attend Banquet Here Wednesday

Herb Wilson of the Wilson Furnace Service, 1020 S. Hinde St., and Lucien Barlett of Sabina were among 40 roofing dealers from all over this area attending a meeting in the Washington Hotel Banquet Room Wednesday night sponsored by Addex Roof Shield, commercial product.

F. O. Schoedinger, Inc., of Columbus, the wholesaler, and Labco of Grosse Pointe, Mich., the manufacturer, were the hosts.

New Pastor To Preach Sunday At South Side Church of Christ

The Rev. Donald E. Arnold, the new pastor of the South Side Church of Christ, will deliver two sermons at next Sunday's services, the first, at 10:30 a. m. on "The Death Blow of Sin" and the second at 7:30 p. m. on "The Look of Jesus."

The Rev. Mr. Arnold succeeds the Rev. Berry Kennedy, who resigned last spring to go to the Belgian Congo in Africa as a missionary.

The Rev. Mr. Kennedy delivered his last sermon at the South Side Church on Easter. Since then he has been making arrangements to go to Africa in the fall. Mrs. Kennedy is staying with her parents in Williamsburg, W. Va., while her husband spends much of his time in preparation for his new ministry at the church's Cincinnati headquarters.

THE REV. MR. ARNOLD came to the South Side Church pastorate from Middletown, where he had served the Parkway Church of Christ for six years.

A native of Augusta, W. Va., a small town in the eastern part of the state, the Rev. Mr. Arnold, 36, served three years in Alaska and the Aleutian Islands during World War II following his graduation from Romney, W. Va. High School.

Out of the Army, he went to Potomac State College at Keyser, W. Va., for two years and then transferred to the Cincinnati Bible Seminary, from which he was graduated in 1949.

During his seminary days, he served the church in Porter, Ky., as a student pastor, but his first pastorate as an ordained minister was at Sesser, Ill. From there he went to Ellery, Ill., and then to Middletown.

MRS. ARNOLD is a native of Ill., but the two met while both were students in the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. They have one son, Philip, 5½, and are now settled in the parsonage beside the church at 917 S. Fayette St.

The Rev. "Ir. Arnold comes to the church here which has a membership of around 300. Bible School attendance averages about 240 and the congregation for the regular Sunday worship services

Boy, 9, Hit by Car On Clinton Ave.

Richard Lee Andrews, Jr., 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Andrews of 706 Clinton Ave., was in "good" condition Thursday morning at Fayette Memorial Hospital with a chest injury he sustained when he was hit by a car at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in front of his home.

The boy's father told city police his son darted into Clinton Ave. in pursuit of a ball.

Arthur W. Deakyn, 19, Good Hope, the driver of the car which struck the boy, told patrolmen the boy darted out into the street from in front of a parked car. Deakyn reportedly took the boy to the hospital. Police did not charge the driver.

4-H'ers Attend Grooming Clinic

200 Participate At Bloomingburg

A crowd of 200 10-to-12-year-old 4-H club members met Wednesday night in the Bloomingburg High School for their Good Grooming Clinic.

Pointers on healthful and safe living were given a film entitled "Safety on the Playground", a skit and discussion groups.

The boys' discussion leader, Everett Rudolph, Bloomingburg High School coach, discussed mishaps which involve youngsters. The group discussed ways of preventing accidents.

Mrs. Barbara Bartling served as discussion leader for the girls. She discussed personal cleanliness, posture and proper grooming.

A FEATURE of this year's Grooming Clinic was the presentation of a skit on foods and nutrition by the Wilson Wonders and Wilson Country Sisters 4-H clubs. The skit concerned a school child who was tired and worn out, due to improper eating habits.

The 4-H club members entered the stage dressed as different foods and told what they could contribute to health and vitality. The story ended with the youngsters having a change of attitude concerning their eating habits.

The skit was obtained through the Fayette County Board of Health and had been given previously by the 4-H clubs at a Wilson PTO meeting and is to be given again at a Fayette Grange meeting.

The 15-minute film shown to the entire group, was also furnished through the courtesy of the Fayette County Health Department.

Mrs. Walter Carman, president of the 4-H Council, welcomed the group and served as mistress of ceremonies. The club members joined with Associate County Agent Phil Grover in group singing at the beginning of the program.

Home To Be Visited on Pilgrimage

DR. AND MRS. DICK JUNK and their three children live in this white frame home on Columbus Rd., north of Washington C. H. They will be among the seven home-owner-hosts for the Pilgrimage sponsored by Phi Beta Psi sorority on May 4. The Junk home features a completely remodeled downstairs, where one large living room has been fashioned attractively from two smaller rooms. The "country kitchen" in the home was remodeled six years ago. The Junks have plans for re-doing the upstairs of their home in the future.

Greenfield Gas Dispute Goes Back to PUCO

GREENFIELD — The battle between the Village of Greenfield and the Dayton Power and Light Co. will get a rehearing in the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio May 28, it has been announced.

The new hearing was scheduled on the heels of a charge from DP&L that the utilities commission erred in at least three areas in slashing the firm's request for a $41,585 annual rate increase by more than 31 per cent.

The plea from DP&L was based on the contention that the commission erred in reducing by $11,363 the expense claimed for the purchase of natural gas.

The firm contends the commission did not follow the law in providing for adjustments when the cost of gas changes. It said the PUCO's conclusion that only $151,844 should be allowed as expenses for gas purchased would deny the firm the opportunity to receive even its "unadjusted actual cost for Greenfield."

The firm also contends that there are errors in the allowance of adjustments for changes in wages, payroll taxes and revenue taxes, and that the commission did not properly consider property taxes and depreciation expenses.
